The Central Committee of the Federation of Yugoslav Labor Unions is slated to receive 3 percent of the total 1951 membership dues. The Main Committee of the Federation of Labor Unions in Serbia is to get 5 percent of the membership dues of unions under its jurisdiction, the Main Committee in Croatia 5 percent, in Slovenia 5 percent, in Bosnia and Herzegovina 6 percent, in Macedonia 10 percent, and in Montenegro 15 percent.

The 1951 revenues and expenditures, in dinars, planned for the Main Committees of the Federation of Labor Unions in the six republics are as follows (in each case revenues equal expenditures): Serbia, 13,829,000; Croatia, 9,380,000; Slovenia, 5,514,000; Bosnia and Herzegovina, 5,438,480; Macedonia, 4,005,600; and Montenegro, 1,782,000.

The 1951 budget for the Central Committee of the Federation of Yugoslav Labor Unions calls for 21,821,460 dinars in revenues and an equal amount in expenditures.

NEW LABOR UNION ORGANIZED -- Belgrade, Politika, 13 Nov 50

Until recently, blue- and white-collar workers in ferrous and nonferrous metallurgical enterprises belonged to the Metal Workers' and Miners' Labor Unions, while workers in nonmetal mines belonged to the Construction Workers' and Miners' Labor Unions. At the 12th meeting of the Central Committee of the Federation of Yugoslav Labor Unions it was decided to organize a labor union for Yugoslav metallurgical workers. The organizational meeting of the new union is taking place today.

At present 70,000 workers are employed in Yugoslav metallurgical enterprises.
